STATEMENT OF FAITH

We believe that the Bible is God's Holy Word, verbally inspired in the original text, and the supreme authority in all matters of faith and conduct.

We believe that there is one God, eternally existent in wisdom, measureless in power. We believe that He concerns Himself mercifully in the affairs of men, that He hears and answers prayer, and that He saves from sin and death all who come to Him through Christ.

We believe in Jesus Christ, the divine, eternal and only begotten Son of God. We believe that in His earthly life, He was conceived of the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin, and lived a sinless life. We believe in His vicarious and atoning death for the sins of the world. We believe in His bodily resurrection from the dead, His ascension to the right hand of the Father to make intercession for the saints, and in His personal, visible, return to the world in power and glory.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, in His personality and deity, that He was sent forth from the Father to convince the world of sin, of righteousness, and of judgement. We believe that He is come to regenerate, indwell, sanctify, instruct, and comfort the saints.

We believe that all men are, by nature and by choice, sinners, destitute of all power to save themselves. We believe, therefore, that the only means of salvation of sinful men is the regenerating work of the Holy Spirit on the basis of the atoning work of Christ, through personal faith in Christ. We believe in the resurrection of all men, those that are saved unto the resurrection of eternal life, and those that are lost unto the resurrection of eternal damnation.

We believe in the Church—the living Spiritual body of which Jesus Christ is the Head and of which all regenerated persons are members. We believe that the Lord laid upon the church the task of persuading a lost and sinful world to accept Jesus Christ as Saviour and to enthrone Him as Lord and Master in their lives. We believe that visible church is a company of believers in Jesus Christ, and associated for worship, work, and fellowship.

PURPOSE

To be great in the sight of God, a man must be humble. To glorify as Christ among the children of God, he must be great and understanding. To live in the world and draw individuals to Christ, he must have a Spirit-controlled life, dependant upon prayer.

In loving admiration we dedicate this yearbook to one who has become these things to us, Mr. Ralph Gustafson.

Dedication

To be great in the sight of God, a man must be humble. To glorify Jesus Christ among the children of God, he must be patient and understanding. To live in the world and draw individuals to Christ, he must live a Spirit-controlled life, dependant upon prayer.

In loving admiration we dedicate this yearbook to one who has become all these things to us, Mr. Ralph Gustafson.

FROM THE DESK OF THE PRESIDENT

The eternal purpose of God for man is that he should be redeemed and restored to fellowship with Himself. The great theme of the Bible is redemption. Redemption has been provided by God and in time it will be manifested how many will be partakers of this glorious redemption. This message of redeeming grace is needed in all the world, and God has called those who have responded to His grace to take this message to all the world. In fact, Jesus has commanded us to "go and teach all nations" (Matt. 28:19).

Education and training in the Bible are needed to fulfill this great commission. Under God this has been our aim here at Glen Cove Bible School. Knowledge of the Word of God, love for Christ and a desire to make Him known are the necessary prerequisites for Christian service. Since many people of the earth are still without a knowledge of the gospel of redeeming grace, it is our desire to see youth trained and sent forth to the ends of the earth. Many have gone but there is still a great need. Let us pray that the Lord of the harvest will thrust forth more laborers. Perhaps you may not have thought of these facts before, but you will give prayerful attention to what you can do to make Christ known.

FROM THE DEAN

There is no doubt but what we are living in the last days. The challenge to be a servant of God in these difficult days is tremendous. We are warned "that in the last days perilous times shall come." The trend of the age indicates that the times will not get any better but even grow worse. "But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived." The challenge of the servant of God is to go on for Him despite the age in which we live. Therefore we read, "But continue thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing of whom thou hast learned them."

We are glad that God has entrusted you to us for these years of training. Our responsibility to God in your behalf for the sake of the work of our Lord Jesus Christ has been great. As you go out into the work, we are confident that the Lord has caused you to learn some things while here and we are glad to entrust you to the Lord, trusting that you will continue in the things that you have learned and been assured of. Our joy is fulfilled as we see graduates go forth as men and women of God with real conviction to uncompromisingly hold forth the Word of life.

Stand up courageously for God and "Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine. For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears and they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables. But watch thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist. make full proof of thy ministry."

We congratulate you and "commend you to God, and to the word of his grace." "Be ye stedfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord."

FROM THE EDITOR

“ . . . God is not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.” That is the purpose of Bible School and this yearbook: to make known to man that God wants all to repent. In presenting this yearbook, we do not wish to present only a school but also a Saviour—Jesus Christ, the only Saviour.

Hard Work, joys, sorrows, disappointments, and fun are all to be found within the pages of this book. Yet through all this, it is the desire of the entire school that Christ might be found supreme in every effort. We pray that this book has been prepared under the guidance of the Holy Spirit and that as it is read He will continue to work through it.

I would like to thank personally all the students for allowing me to have the privilege of being editor of this book. My prayer as it goes forth to you is that you will receive as much of a blessing from reading it as I received compiling it.

We pray that the book will be just what it is entitled—THE WITNESS!

PRACTICAL WORK

Christ Himself put the "Go" in the Gospel when He said, "All power is given unto Me in heaven and in earth. Go ye, therefore. . . ." Surprising as it is to some, this means, "You go." And so, out from Glen Cove Bible School they do go, not only across the sea, not only in the future, but across the street and across the state, here and now. This is what the Practical Christian Service program means to us.

During the past year students have gone into their "Jerusalem, Judea, and Samaria." Freshmen have crossed town to teach a Good News Club for children in some hospitable home. Others have reached young people through Sunday School Classes, Junior Church, Youth groups, Pioneer Girls, and Boys Brigade. Then too, some men have supplied church pulpits, traveling many miles, while others have assumed pastoral responsibilities in local areas.

Through cooperative efforts of a number of students open air street meetings have been held in the Rockland area with a musical program volunteers have gone out weekly to provide a program of cheer in the and a showing of a Moody science film. Also, a Gospel team and other nursing homes and hospital. In addition, every student has gone out in home visitation or participated in a community spiritual survey.

Today, indeed, our alumni have gone to the ends of the earth, but their "going" began years ago at Glen Cove in just this way.

CHOIR

Experience in Christian service was afforded to seventeen students through the outreach of the Bible School choir. Their vocal abilities were united to produce a choral program entitled "The Christian and His Future." They were also frequently called upon to sing, testify, teach, and do personal work in Sunday schools, youth rallies, jails, and nursing homes. Along with these opportunities the Lord blessed with the provision of funds for a much-needed choir riser and new robes.

The choir presented their program in over thirty appearances throughout the state during the spring semester. Highlights of the year included an appearance at the Maine Sunday School Convention, a combined concert with the Academy choir at the Rockland Community Center, and a tour through New Hampshire and Vermont following graduation.

TRIO

The Lord has greatly blessed our trio this past school year. We have had a chance to serve Him in many places. Some of these are: Ira and Rutland, Vermont; Monadnock Bible Conference in Jaffrey Center, New Hampshire; plus some cities in Maine. The Lord has also used us in a nursing home ministry here in the Rockland, Thomaston, and Warren area. Jeremiah 33:3 best sums up what the Lord has done for us: "Call unto me, and I will answer thee, and shew thee great and mighty things, which thou knowest not." Truly God has shown us great things which we never expected.

LIFE

PRAYER GROUPS

Each morning at Bible School, the day is begun with prayer. There are two student prayer groups which meet each morning from 8:45—9:00. These groups are usually led by Lee Quimby and Jim McLaughlin.

Every Wednesday the students meet in missionary groups. Each student chooses a group which he is interested in. There are five such groups led by the students. These groups are: Africa, Asia, South America, North America, and Europe.

On Friday each week the entire student body meets together to pray. These times are led by Arthur Johnson, the school devotional chairman.

Prayer is an important aspect of Bible School life, as it draws each of us closer to Christ, and to each other through Him. Many definite requests made at these prayer groups have been answered to God's glory.

DORM PRAYER MEETINGS

Each dorm has a time of prayer together each evening for fifteen minutes. These are times when blessings and prayer requests are shared with fellow students. These times are led by a student in each dorm. It is a time of real spiritual blessings.

EXCHANGE PROGRAM

On March 10-12 six students from Glen Cove exchanged places with six students from the Bible Institute of New England. This was the second exchange program held by the two schools.

During the days there, the students actually changed places; beds, seats at the table, and classes. There was fun and fellowship for all! It is a real joy to know that in Christ we have fellowship no matter how many miles separate us.

BEHIND THE SCENES

There are some people who work at our school who are not noticed every day, yet the job they carry out is just as important as any job here. They are the office workers! How would bills get paid? How would books be kept? Who would answer phones? Who would write letters? We know that without them many things—important things would not be accomplished, so we are very thankful for each of these faithful workers.

THIRD ANNUAL YOUTH RETREAT

GYM CLASS

Our gym class has proved to be a very exhausting experience. Once a week we meet to exercise our physical bodies and give our well-taxed minds a rest.

Gym activities include exercises, twister, volleyball, softball when weather permits, basketball and just plain fun. After class activities are usually repairing seams and securing linament for aching muscles.

We have been pretty active and have even lost a few ounces!
